Show Jumping Hall of Fame Receives Two New Donations for Its Museum Collection

Lexington, KY – July 12, 2022 – The Show Jumping Hall of Fame has received two new donations to display as part of the Show Jumping Hall of Fame collection at the United States Hunter Jumper Association (USHJA) Wheeler Museum in Lexington, KY.

The collection is now home to official catalogs from the 1885, 1886 and 1889 National Horse Shows. The catalogs were donated by Ronald B. Gaeta, DVM, a well-known FEI veterinarian and owner of Dunbarton Equine of Newtown, CT.

“My father got these catalogs in the 1960s and we have had them in our family ever since,” Dr. Gaeta said. “It makes me very happy to donate them to the Show Jumping Hall of Fame and to know that people will be able to see them when they visit the museum at the USHJA.”

Thanks to another contribution from Alan Keeley, a popular ringmaster at many leading horse shows, the Show Jumping Hall of Fame is now also in possession of two “Coach Guard” Livery coats and breeches worn by 2002 Hall of Fame inductee Clarence L. “Honey” Craven. Craven was a legendary ringmaster at many horse shows including more than 30 years at the National Horse Show.

“Honey gave me these coats and breeches before he passed and I have been keeping them in my home,” said Keeley, a protégé of Craven. “Honey is one of our sport’s all-time legends and I consider it an honor to be able to donate these coats to the Show Jumping Hall of Fame.”

I thank them both for their generous support of the Hall of Fame.”
